TITLE: STUDENT DISCIPLINE

ADOPTED: March 21, 2002

REVISED: June 20, 2013

218. STUDENT DISCIPLINE
1. Purpose	The Joint Operating Committee acknowledges that student conduct is closely related to learning. An effective educational program requires a safe and orderly school environment.
2. Authority SC 1850.1 Title 22 Sec. 12.3, 12.4 Pol. 103, 103.1	The Joint Operating Committee shall establish fair, reasonable and nondiscriminatory rules and regulations regarding the conduct of all students in the school during the time they are under the supervision of the school or at any time while on school property, while present at school-sponsored activities, while traveling to and from school and school-sponsored activities.
Title 22 Sec. 12.2, 12.3 12.4 Pol. 103, 103.1, 235	The Joint Operating Committee shall adopt a Code of Student Conduct to govern student discipline, and students shall not be subject to disciplinary action because of race, sex, color, religion, sexual orientation, national origin or handicap/disability. Each student must adhere to Joint Operating Committee policies and the Code of Student Conduct governing student discipline.
Title 22 Sec. 12.5	The Joint Operating Committee prohibits the use of corporal punishment to discipline students for violation of Joint Operating Committee policies and school rules or regulations.
Pol. 233	Any student disciplined by a school employee shall have the right to notice of the infraction.
Pol. 233	Suspensions and expulsions shall be carried out in accordance with Joint Operating Committee policy.
Title 22 Sec. 10.23 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq Pol. 103.1, 113.1, 113.2	In the case of a student with a disability, including a student for whom an evaluation is pending, the school shall take all steps required to comply with state and federal laws and regulations, the procedures set forth in the memorandum of understanding with local law enforcement and Joint Operating Committee policies.

	Off-Campus Activities This policy shall also apply to student conduct that occurs off school property and would otherwise violate the Code of Student Conduct if any of the following circumstances exist: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The conduct occurs during the time the student is traveling to and from school or a school-sponsored activity, whether or not via school furnished transportation. 2. The student is a member of an extracurricular activity and has been notified that particular off-campus conduct could result in exclusion from such activities. 3. Student expression or conduct materially and substantially disrupts the operations of the school, or the administration reasonably anticipates that the expression or conduct is likely to materially and substantially disrupt the operations of the school. 4. The conduct has a direct nexus to attendance at school or a school-sponsored activity, for example, a transaction conducted outside of school pursuant to an agreement made in school, that would violate the Code of Student Conduct if conducted in school. 5. The conduct involves the theft or vandalism of school property. 6. There is otherwise a nexus between the proximity or timing of the conduct in relation to the student's attendance at school or school-sponsored activities. 3. Delegation of Responsibility The Administrative Director or designee shall ensure that reasonable and necessary rules and regulations are developed to implement Joint Operating Committee policy governing student conduct. Title 22 Sec. 12.3 Pol. 235 The Administrative Director or designee shall publish and distribute to all staff, students and parents/guardians the rules and regulations for student behavior contained in the Code of Student Conduct, the sanctions that may be imposed for violations of those rules, and a listing of students' rights and responsibilities. A copy of the Code of Student Conduct shall be made available in the school office. SC 1317, 1318 The Administrative Director or designee shall have the authority to assign discipline to students, subject to Joint Operating Committee policies and school rules and regulations and to the student's due process right to notice, hearing, and appeal.
