SECTION: COMMUNITY

TITLE: RELATIONS WITH PARENTS/
GUARDIANS

ADOPTED: February 20, 2003

REVISED:

908. RELATIONS WITH PARENTS/GUARDIANS
1. Purpose	The Joint Operating Committee believes that the education of students is a joint responsibility that it shares with parents and guardians. To ensure that the best interests of each student are served in the educational process, a strong program of communication between home and school must be maintained.
2. Authority	The Joint Operating Committee feels that it is the parents who have the ultimate responsibility for their children's behavior in school, including the behavior of students who have reached the legal age of majority but are still, for all practical purposes, under parental authority.
SC 1317	During school hours, the Joint Operating Committee acts in loco parentis, or in place of the parents, through its designated administrators.
3. Guidelines	The Joint Operating Committee directs that the following activities be implemented to encourage parent-school cooperation:
Pol. 212	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Parent-teacher conferences to permit two-way communication between home and school. 2. Meetings of parents and staff members to explain and discuss matters of general interest. 3. Meetings of staff members and groups of parents of those students having special abilities, disabilities, needs, or problems. Open House At least once each year, an open house shall be arranged to provide prospective students and their parents an opportunity to tour the center, learn about the vocational technical programs, and speak with the faculty.

Pol. 212 School Code 1317 Joint Operating Committee Policy 212	The Joint Operating Committee believes that parents have a responsibility to support and encourage their child's career in school through the following actions: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Require that students observe all center rules and regulations, and accept their own responsibility for children's willful in-school behavior.2. Send children to school with proper attention to their health, personal cleanliness and dress.3. Maintain an active interest in the student's daily work and provide a quiet place and suitable conditions for completion of assigned homework.4. Read, sign and return promptly all communications from the center, when requested.5. Attend conferences set up for the exchange of information on the child's progress in school.6. Participate in in-school activities and special functions.
